

SUITS.

We are offering some real pretty Suits in Plain and Mannish Cloths at $15 to $20. These are made with the very newest sleeve, mutton leg and new back. Skirts are a graduated kilt, eleven gored.

PLAID SILK WAISTS

In Blue, Green and Cardinal, at $5.00.

You Don't Know,

(If you have not visited our ready-made goods department), how many pretty things we are showing there in Cloaks, Suits, Skirts, Waists, Petticoats, Furs, Rain Coats, Etc. Each season finds our stock larger and the styles and workmanship better. The makers improve each season and a lady has only to get her size and they fit like they were made especially for her. Let us show you.

CLOAKS.

We are showing the newest styles as they come out in New York and the prices are moderate. We show some swell coats at $7.50 to $20.

WALKING SKIRTS.

We have just received a lot of brand new styles in walking skirts. (These have originated in the last month.) They are pretty and every one man-tailored. See the new 17 gored skirt.

The Chapter considers itself fortunate in securing the services of Madame Bailey, whose voice has been heard in every prominent place throughout the country.—Danville News.

THE ELECTION.—As we go to press probably the quietest National election ever known in Lincoln county is being held. A big vote is being polled, notwithstanding the fact that neither the democrats nor the republicans are spending money. It is indeed a poor day for the voter. The chances are that Lincoln county will go democratic by a small majority. Another edition of this paper will be gotten out early to-morrow morning, when we hope to tell of the election of Parker, Davis, Cantrell and Gilbert.

MAD DOGS.—Considerable excitement was caused about church time Sunday by the report that Anderson Carr's coon dog had gone mad and was biting at every thing it came in contact with. Several men armed with shot guns and pistols, started in pursuit of the canine and found him in the lot back of the Myers House. A half dozen shots were fired but George Ely got the credit of bringing the brute to the ground. Walter Hlatt's house dog went mad last week and his owner shot him after a hard fight. The dog tried his best to bite Mr. Hlatt, who fought him with his gloved hands until his wife came to his rescue with a shotgun.
